

HERODOT Thematic Network

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME 2003

Time	Programme
SATURDAY	22nd March 2002
	Arrival at hotel for residential delegates
SUNDAY	23rd March 2002 AT THE ROYAL GEOGRAPHICAL SOCIETY
08.45 – 09.30	Registration and Displays
09.30 – 11.15	Network Launch (chair: Ashley Kent)
	09.30 Welcome, Introduction and Launch Rita Gardner (RGS, UK) Robert Evans MEP, Network Launch HERODOT Thematic Network for Geography 09.50 Aims and expectations Geography and Europe, a research agenda and research opportunities Karl Donert (Liverpool Hope University College, UK), Network coordinator 10.10 Europe's New Geography and its Consequences to Higher Education Professor Dr. Hartwig Haubrich / University of Education Freiburg / Germany 10.45 Panel: UK Initiatives in Geography Brian Chalkley (University of Plymouth), Learning Teaching Support Network Andrew Powell (Kingston University), IGU, UK Mick Healey (University of Gloucestershire), International Perspectives on the professional development of staff Bill Chambers (Geographical Association), The Geographical Association Comments and questions
11.15 Coffee	Displays
11.45 – 13.00	Workshops
	Thematic Groups: Introductory Aspects TP 1: Europeanisation of geographical curriculum, activities, policy TP 2: Innovative co-operation strategies for the professional development, training and quality issues TP 3: Exciting Geography - Innovation in geographical learning and teaching
13.00 Lunch	Displays

HERODOT Thematic Network

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME 2003

Time	Programme
14.00 – 15.30	Workshops
	Thematic Groups: Establishing a Framework TP 1: Europeanisation of geographical curriculum, activities, policy TP 2: Innovative co-operation strategies for the professional development, training and quality issues TP 3: Exciting Geography - Innovation in geographical learning and teaching
15.30 Tea	Displays
15.45 – 16.45	Workshops
	Thematic Groups: Issues in Geography TP 1: Europeanisation of geographical curriculum, activities, policy TP 2: Innovative co-operation strategies for the professional development, training and quality issues An overview from the Netherlands, Harry Rogge, Utrecht University TP 3: Exciting Geography - Innovation in geographical learning and teaching
16.45 – 17.15	Plenary (chair: Nikos Lambrinos, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki)
18.15	Depart for dinner from the hotel
	London by night. London Eye Dinner at the ‘The Fire Station’ Free time or return to hotel

HERODOT Thematic Network

CONFERENCE PROGRAMME 2003

MONDAY	24th March 2002 IMPERIAL COLLEGE, CIVIL ENGINEERING
08.45 –11.15	08.45 – 0915 Coffee State and significance of Geography in higher education: (chair: Costas Constantinos, University of Cyprus) 09.15 The Bologna Process: approaches and trends Professor Wendy Davies, Pro-Provost (Europe) (UCL London) 09.40 The future of Thematic Networks in the context of the Bologna process Karl Donert (Liverpool Hope University College) 10.00 The likely role of associations and other organisations in the network Ashley Kent (IGU), Kevin Cook (Geographical Association) 10.15 Changes in Geography in the USA Susan Bednarz (Texas A&M, USA) Panel Discussion
11.15 Coffee
11.45 –12.30	Thematic Groups: Developing the network TP 1: Europeanisation of geographical curriculum, activities, policy TP 2: Innovative co-operation strategies for the professional development, training and quality issues TP 3: Exciting Geography - Innovation in geographical learning and teaching
12.30-13.00	Plenary (chais: Josef Strobl, Salzburg, Austria)
13.00 Lunch
13.45 –15.00	Thematic Groups: Planning for the future of the network TP 1: Europeanisation of geographical curriculum, activities, policy TP 2: Innovative co-operation strategies for the professional development, training and quality issues TP 3: Exciting Geography - Innovation in geographical learning and teaching
15.00 – 16.00	Closing Session (chair: Karl Donert – members of the Steering Group)
	Feedback from plans and discussion, HERODOT Steering Group HERODOT activity plan for 2003/4
16.00 Tea	Open discussion. Departure